LECKHAMPTON LOCAL HISTORY SOCIETY

The Society was founded in 1992. Its aims are to collect, study and publish information concerning the history of Leckhampton and to stimulate public interest in local history. Meetings are held once a month in St Philip and St James's Church House, Painswick Road, for talks and discussions. Outings and field trips are also organised and there are opportunities to participate in research. There are currently about 80 members. Subscriptions are £5 (individual) or £7.50 (joint). This fee also includes free delivery of Smoke Signal, the Society's quarterly newsletter, and entitles members to purchase certain Society publications at concessionary rates. Enquiries concerning potential membership should be addressed to the Honorary Secretary.
