

LEST WE FORGET

ARTHUR RAYMOND SUMMERS

Army Number 29007

Private, 5th Battalion, Grenadier Guards

Died in England on 3 February 1917, aged 18

Address: 1 Pilley Cottages, Pilley Lane

He is buried in Caterham Burial Ground, Row D, Grave 27 and is named on the War Memorials at Leckhampton and Cheltenham.

Photo from Leaving All that was Dear by J Devereux and G Sacker

Arthur Summers was born in Leckhampton, the third son of Edward and Annie Summers of the above address. He enlisted in the 5th Battalion, Grenadier Guards, in Cheltenham and died while training at Caterham Barracks, Surrey.

His brother Harold also died in the war, on 27 July 1916.